

Powering Travel Payment™

Gary Zannotti
Vice President, Operations & Services

As vice president of Operations, Gary Zannotti is responsible for managing the Operations division which includes an infrastructure team, a regional operations team, and training & compliance as well as UATP's Settlement Service, ATCAN and the authorization system. In the airline industry since 1997, Zannotti has held various positions at American Airlines including Senior Financial Analyst and Marketing Development Manager. He received both an undergraduate degree and MBA from Oklahoma State University.